WHO WE ARE

Summerhouse Houston specializes in employment and community integration for young adults with Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities and Autism.

We support individuals in securing and maintaining integrated, competitive employment. Our services are available through various funding sources, including private pay, the Medicaid Waiver, and referrals from the Texas Workforce Commission. Our staff hold credentials from the University of North Texas and have extensive experience in job development, job training, task analysis, natural supports, autism, and positive behavior supports. Summerhouse Houston is internationally accredited through CARF.
